OCTOBER 2015

FRESH FOOD FRIDAYS

Visiting The Farm to Family produce truck was fun! The vegetables and fruits looked beautiful and very fresh. Sometimes some of the produce gets picked at 5:00 AM that morning.

The produce truck will be here every Friday from 12:30 to 1:30 PM behind the buildings. They also have honeys, spreads, sauces, and pickled items. This month, they will have some organic produce available.

They accept cash, credit and food stamps. For this month, if you spend $20 worth of food stamps, you will receive $20 additional to spend that day or at a later time.

RESIDENT'S COUNCIL INFORMATION

Our Labor Day picnic was very well attended. Thanks to everyone who brought "sides" to go with the sloppy joes. Hope you all enjoyed.

Wasn't the food GREAT when the ladies from St. Paul's Catholic Church came on September 25th? The music played while we ate was very good too! (Every seat available was taken!)

Looking ahead, we will sponsor a chili cook-off on Saturday, October 31st at noon. There will be a sign-up sheet so we can plan space for the containers of chili. We will be voting for the best and there will be prizes.

A flyer will be sent around announcing the date and time of the birthday party.

Please mark your calendars, also, on Saturday, November 7th for our craft sale. I will be taking reservations for tables soon. This will be for crafts only. We will be having a bake sale along with the crafts and can use some "goodies" donated. The tables will be $10.

when 'snap, crackle and pop' were sounds I heard from my cereal, not my body!
